Narrative

On March 12th, 2018 at approximately 1847 hours, I was dispatched to an assault at the Cascade Behavioral Hospital, located at 12844 Military Rd. S.

Upon arrival, I contacted the victim, [REDACTED] who was already in the rear rig of the ambulance. [REDACTED] was extremely confused and suffered from dementia. When asked what had happened or how his laceration occurred on the back of his head, [REDACTED] stated that he slipped and fell. [REDACTED] did not know he had a laceration to his head. He then began to talk about various unrelated topics. Due to [REDACTED]'s state of mind, he was unable to recall the events that had occurred leading to his injury and would not have been able to answer if he wanted prosecution for this incident. [REDACTED] was then transported to the hospital by the ambulance.

I entered the hospital and contacted the offender, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that he had been assaulted by [REDACTED] in the past while in the hospital. Today, [REDACTED] approached him and began talking to him while in his face. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was so close to him, that [REDACTED]'s nose was touching his. [REDACTED] told him to get back, but [REDACTED] didn't, so [REDACTED] shoved him back to create distance. [REDACTED] then fell backwards. [REDACTED] said that his intention wasn't to hurt [REDACTED].
